CHAMBER OF COMMERCE COMMITTEE IS MEETING THE NEW SUPERVISORS

What may prove to be an important precedent in getting together the city officials and representative business men of the city is a meeting called for 2 o'clock this afternoon in the rooms of the Chamber of Commerce, Stangenwald building. The meeting is that of the committee of the chamber, and the seven men who were elected supervisors two weeks ago have been invited to be present. Two of them, Ben Hollinger and Robert Horner, have gone to the coast for short trips, but the others are expected to be present. The meeting is to be quite informal, it was said today, and is for the purpose of establishing friendly working relations between the newly-elected officials and the chamber, through its committee. It was not expected this morning that the two parties to the conference would get down to detail in discussion of city affairs today.

CLUB WEEK-END TRIP IS TAKEN BY 50 PEOPLE

Trail and Mountain Excursion Gives Taste of "Roughing It" That is Enjoyable

Their ardor unquenched though their clothes were dampened by an almost continuous rain, 50 excursionists under the direction of A. H. Ford of the Trail and Mountain Club yesterday visited Kaneohe and vicinity. Saw a very beautiful part of Oahu under adverse weather conditions that did not spoil the trip, and returned to the city last evening tired and hungry but with expressions of real enjoyment.

The trip gave a good taste of "roughing it" to the party, most of whom were ready for anything, in stout boots, old clothes, khaki skirts and bathing suits. The latter came in handy. Some of the excursionists did not find it necessary to go into the water at all in order to get their bath.

Auto-buses took the party in the morning across the cloud-wrapped and rain-swept Pali, to the Federal Wireless plant, where a brief visit was made, and then from the nearby beach the big power sampan Heela Mary conveyed the excursionists to Coconut Island. On the island beach fires were lit and Ford succeeded in getting together a picnic meal that was welcomed with shouts of joy.

After spending two hours on the island the party returned to the city. Ford's argument that young men of Hawaii should be trained for handling such trips as these was abundantly proved by the events of the day. In order to insure the smooth working of the trips or large parties it is shown to be necessary that guides and cooks should be provided in advance. Yesterday six members of the party, through a misunderstanding or confusion in directions given, walked several miles away from the road leading to the beach where the sampan was awaiting the party, delaying the party for more than an hour.

Those who took yesterday's trip are enthusiastic over the possibilities of week-end excursions, for both townspeople and tourists. This is the fourth of these trips under the auspices of the Trail and Mountain Club.

There will be a "roughing it" trip next Saturday afternoon by auto bus to Kaneohe, everyone taking his blanket and spending the night in the Trail and Mountain rest house at Kaneohe. Sunday will be spent on the Punalua trail in the mountains and at Kailua-wa falls, the party returning to Honolulu late Saturday afternoon. This trip is open to men only.

Next Sunday a party will go by auto bus to some part of Oahu, where the sun is shining. Plans are in preparation to run small automobile trips on week days for the bona fide tourist, sending him to tried places of interest. Those wishing to take part in any of the trips or exploration week-end parties are requested to drop a postcard to P. O. Box 649.
